NEWS BUDGET FROM CLEARVIEW

We are pleased to know that Mrs. John Comfort, who has been confined to her bed for some time, is able to be about again.

Mr. C. Houghton is spending a week visiting with Mrs. Estcott, of Ping Lake.

Mr. J. Richards is about completed in this community, with a yield considerably above what was anticipated during the summer dry spell.

Mr. John White is grading the road by Mr. J. C. Houghton, which will give him a good road to his farm, and will relieve the traffic on the Clearview road to a considerable extent.

On Friday the Clearview and Horn Hill people met in mass at the home of Mrs. J. C. Houghton, the occasion being a good-bye party in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Sandham and family, who are soon to leave to their old home at Lethbridge. During the evening a case of silverware was presented to Mr. and Mrs. Sandham, as an appreciation of their hearty cooperation in all social functions in the community.

THE Autumn issue of this popular embroidery book contains instructions for tufting, cross-stitching and appliqueing bedspreads; for crocheting rag rugs, using odd pieces of Chinese embroidery; making bags to match dresses; cross-stitching and beading dresses; running embroidery through net; tatting the alphabet, painting china. As for the sweaters, there are both coat sweaters and slip-ons in the Autumn Needlework Book; there's a striped one with panels back and front, another with pointed inserts; a sweater knitted in the new pop-corn stitch—all unusual, all easy to make.

EX-SERGEANT'S HARD LUCK

Queen Mary's sympathy for those broken in the war was again shown by her purchase of a beautiful four-panel screen from ex-Sergeant Ellis, of Fulham. The screen, which measured 6 ft. by 2 1/2 feet, and is the result of really good taste and artistic devotion, was delivered at Buckingham Palace recently.

Mr. Ellis is a native of Kilmarnock, and was, in brighter days, an accountant. He was a good footballer and played centre (rugby code) for Cardiff Corinthians. Ellis' fate has been strangely ironical as well as hard. Enlisting in the Gordon Highlanders in August, 1914, he fought at the Marne, Loos, Neuve Chapelle, Hill 60, Verdun, Cambrai, St. Quentin and Ypres. It was his strange luck to come through all these titanic struggles without a scratch, and only a few days before the armistice to fall ill from exposure. He is now paralyzed from the waist down and only the rule of a once fine man.

Definite postponement of any payment of the debts owed the United States by European nations, with the exception of Great Britain, until the actual amount which such nations could ultimately pay has been determined by conferences between the creditors and the debtors, was suggested by Reginald McKenna, former chancellor of the British exchequer, in an address before the American Bankers' association convention at New York, Wednesday.

TO SECURE GOOD CLASS OF SETTLERS

Amendments to Immigration Act May be Introduced Next Session

If the proposition of the Federal Government, compiled by the provinces, after necessary negotiations, a system of co-operation will be evolved in respect to the immigration problem, which may obviate duplication of effort. At the present time, several provinces have immigration agencies in the Old Country operating distinctly from those of the Dominion Government. The proposed plan is that the Federal Government confine its activities to securing the immigrants overseas and transporting them to Canada, leaving the allocation to the provinces.

A sub-committee of the Cabinet is dealing with the question generally, and it is very likely that, at the next session of Parliament, the Immigration Act will be revised. Variation in the existing restrictions will be a matter for consideration in the meantime.

The great demand is for British immigrants, and plenty of them are available. The unfortunate part of the situation, however, is that the class ready to come to Canada are not those either disposed to go on the land or likely to make good if they went there. Rather, they are of the artisan class, whose coming would only tend to aggravate the existing problem of unemployment in the urban centres.

As regards the Scandinavians, they are industrious and a desirable type of immigrants, but the difficulty is that in their country any proposals for emigration is prohibited and infractions are penalized. There remains Central Europe, but while there are many from these countries who have made good in Canada, prejudice begotten by the war are an obstacle to their admission, and in fact, the law in its present form sets up a bar against them.

ALBERTA NATURAL HISTORY SOCIETY

An off night in some ways, since the usual paper was lacking, the first meeting of the season of the Natural History Society was very satisfactory on the whole.

The meeting was held on Wednesday evening in the Public Library. President C. H. Small occupying the chair. The principal business of the meeting was reports of committees on the work done during the summer. Mr. Small reported that the Society's classes at the Horticultural Show were a great success. The same could not be said of the School Fair Natural History classes, although there was an improvement over last year.

Mr. Crosby reported satisfactory progress in the matter of incorporation. Four notices have been placed at the Gaetz Lake Bird Sanctuary, which had been inspected by Mr. A. M. Munro, of Armstrong, who is the Western inspector of the Dominion Parks Branch, Dept. of the Interior, under the Migratory Birds Convention Act.

Mr. Crosby reported having found in the Sanctuary a butterfly, the Papilio struthius, which has only twice before been found in Canada; it is the Arctic variety of the exceedingly rare Black Swallowtail.

A committee was appointed to arrange for the proposed visit of Miss Edith March, of Possessum Farm, probably one of the greatest bird conservationists in the country. Finally a few minutes were spent in mapping out the winter's work.

The night of meeting was changed back from Wednesday to Friday.

FINDS FORTUNE ON STREETS OF BERLIN

An extraordinary find was made in the west end of Berlin. Frau Hauth, wife of a merchant of Kallisdorf, near Berlin, had been paying a visit to the city, and was on her way to Charlottenburg railway station to catch her train home when she was along Kurfurstendamm, which is Berlin's Piccadilly, she saw a portmanteau on the pavement. No one was near, and after waiting for several minutes to see if it was claimed, Frau Hauth decided to take the portmanteau to the police station nearby. But she found it was so heavy that she could not lift it. She obtained the help of a policeman, and between them they took the bag to the nearest station. There it was opened, and was found to contain many ornaments of gold, and a large number of valuable articles of jewelry. It is estimated that the contents of the portmanteau have a value of at least 30,000,000 of marks.

MAKE HAY WHILE IT RAINS

A Nottingham farmer says: "I have just made hay in large stacks without the aid of the sun. The grass was stacked as soon as it was cut, i.e., while it was quite green. A hollow space was left in the centre of the stack which was connected to an electric siphon fan which blew air into the centre of the stack and cooled it, utilizing the heat of one part to cure another part."

"The stack was only blown in this way when it started to get too hot (over 150 degrees Fahr.). The neighbors, who looked on hourly, awaited a call for the fire brigade, but they waited in vain, for hay of excellent quality and splendid aroma was produced with no untoward results."

"Not only is this method an excellent one for wet seasons, but it seems likely to be practicable for any season, as all the 'labor' of teasing the hay by picturesque sun-bonnet girls (who have to be paid) is eliminated; and further, much time is saved."

"The outcome of this preliminary work is two big stacks of about twenty-five tons of finished hay. Further stacks are in progress."

How the Forestry Tariff Affects Western Canada.

Western Canada, by virtue of the provisions of the new United States tariff. This high tariff is certainly a disadvantage, and to a large extent will affect western Canada trade in a detrimental way. A glance through the tariff leaves the impression that it was framed with the idea of shutting out Western Canada products. The following quotations will show the position under the old tariff and the increases under the new one:

Dairy Products—Butter, oleomargarine, etc., increased from 2 1/2 to 80 per cent; cheese from 30 to 40 per cent; milk free under old tariff, now 3 1/2 per gal.; cream, free to 20 per gal.; milk, condensed or evaporated, free, to 10 to 1 1/2 per pound. Cattle—Weighting less than 150 lbs., free under old tariff, now 1 1/2 per pound; weighing over 150 lbs., free, now 20 per pound.

Sheep—Formerly free, now 20 per head. Wool—Formerly free, now 11c to 21c per pound.

Grains—Wheat, formerly free, now 30c per bushel; wheat flour, free, now 75c per 100 lb.; flaxseed, increased from 20c to 40c per bushel; barley, from 15c to 20c per bushel; oats, from 10c to 15c per bushel; timothy hay, increased from 30c to 80c per 100 lbs.; rye, free, to 15c per bushel; bran, from 10c to 15c per bushel; clover hay, increased from 20c to 30c per 100 lbs.; alfalfa hay, increased from 20c to 30c per 100 lbs.

Log-Pine—Formerly free, now 10c per 1000 ft.; hemlock, formerly free, now 10c per 1000 ft.; manufactures of wood, increased from 15c to 25c per 1000 ft.

Pigs—Formerly free, now 1 1/2 per pound; bacon, hams, etc., free to 20 per pound; lard, free to 10c per pound; lard substitutes, free to 40c per pound. Poultry—Live, increased from 10c to 30c per lb.; dressed from 20c to 40c per lb.; eggs, free to 8c per doz.

Horses—Value under $150 each, from 10% to 20% per head; value over $150 each, from 10% to 20% per head. Hay—Increased from 20c to 40c per ton.

Potatoes—Increased from 25c per bushel to 50c per 100 lbs.

Undressed furs, hides, furs, bric, formerly 10%, now free.

Vegetables in the natural state, from 15% to 25%.

Meats, prepared or preserved, free to 20%.

Fall Ploughing Kills Grasshoppers

Professor E. H. Strickland, government entomologist, has prepared a circular containing valuable advice to farmers in the area in which grasshoppers gave trouble this year. Some of this advice is pertinent to the fall season. Mr. Strickland says: "The destructive grasshoppers lay their eggs during August and September either in soil (Roadside Grasshopper) or in stubble and desert (Lesser Migratory and Two-striped Grasshopper), and no eggs are laid in land that has been summer-fallowed."

Where it is practicable from a cultural point of view all stubble land should be ploughed in the fall. It should be deeply ploughed this fall as soon as the crop has been removed. The ploughing will bury any eggs that have been laid so deeply that they will not hatch in the spring, and it will prevent any further egg-laying in the field so ploughed.

Early fall discing is less effective than ploughing though it will lessen subsequent egg laying, and all eggs that are brought to the surface will be destroyed by the sun.

When fall ploughing is not advisable or practicable, stubble land should be ploughed to a depth of less than eight inches before seeding in the spring. Care must be taken to see that the furrows are well tilled over and the plough should be followed by a packer. When this work is well done very few hoppers will reach the surface.

Spring discing unless followed by ploughing of little value, and it may do more harm than good, for it merely buries the eggs to different depths in loose earth, with the result that the hatching period is greatly prolonged, and fields that have been so treated are subject to heavy infestation in order to catch the constantly hatching grasshoppers as soon as they appear, and before they have done much damage to the crop.

In the more sandy districts which are infested with the Lesser Migratory and Two-striped grasshoppers, the problem of control is more difficult, since these species lay their eggs promiscuously in stubble land and in deserted fields, and do not rather in ploughed areas. No crop should be sown on stubble land in such districts unless it has been deeply ploughed, and rye, which is established in this fall will be seriously infested.

Deserted lands and fields that are to be summer-fallowed next year constitute a serious menace to all crops in the district, and the best method of handling them requires careful consideration. Whenever possible summer-fallowing should be started early in the season, while the ground is still moist. The fields should be ploughed from the edges towards the centre, or in strips so that the grasshoppers that have hatched will be headed together. These must be poisoned before the ploughing is completed.

The Alberta exhibit, which has been touring American State fairs, will be taken to exhibitions at Twin Butte, Montana, Pendleton, Oregon and Walla, Walla, Washington. The exhibit has attracted much attention at Montana and Utah State fairs, and should do much to acquaint Uncle Sam's people with the diversified resources of the best province north of the 49th.

Welcomed by representatives of provincial and civic governments, military officials and a large gathering of citizens, Lord Byng, governor-general of Canada, accompanied by Lady Byng, arrived at Winnipeg, Wednesday morning.

SCHOOL BOOKS MAY BE MADE IN WESTERN CANADA

Winnipeg, Man., Oct. 4.—Endeavor of the Alberta Federation of Labor to get government school books in western Canada printed in the west have been endorsed at the meeting of the Winnipeg Trades and Labor Council Tuesday night, and the matter will be taken up with the Manitoba government.

The resolution was brought before the Council in a letter from the Calgary Trades and Labor Council, enclosing a resolution for endorsement. It stated that the printers of the three prairie provinces had tried for some time to get school books for use in the west printed by western publishers. The Alberta Federation of Labor, it stated, had repeatedly requested the government of that province to get together with employers and employers and inquire into the possibility of printing them in the west.

The resolution pointed out the difficulty resulting from the books being copyrighted and making it necessary to secure them from eastern firms who held the copyright. Elimination of this copyright was urged. The Calgary Council also pointed out that the new contract for the school books was to be entered into this year, and that it would be for a term of ten years. The resolution, which was endorsed, asked that the present contract be extended for one year, during which time the matter of getting them printed in the west could be taken up.

Kootenay Indians Baseball Champions

The Kootenay Indians who played such a prominent part in the pageant arranged in connection with the David Thompson Memorial celebrations at Lake Windermere, B.C., are not only expert riders and canoe men, but have recently taken to baseball with wonderful enthusiasm. At the Lake Windermere District Fall Fair they played against a white team for the silver cup offered by Randolph Bruce, a local mine owner, winning it with a score of seven to five. The accompanying photographs show the team in their day clothes, and in their baseball rig-out. The team is captained by Dominick Nicholas, who is seen standing in the foreground, and is supported by Martin Sam, Conrad Short, Christopher Joseph, Frank Whitehead, and several others. The Kootenays are one of the best of Indians in America, the records of David Thompson over a hundred years ago intimating that they have always been a fine upstanding set of men. In the old days they were famous hunters, but now they spend more of their time farming and are adepts in the use of the rifle. During the pageant they appeared in wonderfully fine costumes, rich in blues and purples, and harmonious reds, making a display which greatly impressed their white brethren. Every Kootenay Indian is a born horseman or horse-

LIBRARY DRIVE

The Library Board suspect that there are thousands of perfectly good books of fiction or works of reference in private hands in the city, and for which the owners have no particular use.

The Public Library is badly in need of such books, but the Board have no funds wherewith to buy them. Anyone who has taken note of the interest shown by the citizens in the library, and the number of books that are circulated every week, will concede that the location in one of the most valuable assets which the people enjoy, even in its depleted condition.

The Board appeals to the citizens to donate some of these good books to the library and put them in circulation for public service. To this end, a drive will be held next Saturday between the hours of 9 a.m. and noon. The Board, by kind permission of the Scoutmaster, will call at the homes. The people are requested to make selection of such suitable books as they can spare and have them ready for the boys when they call. It is hoped that the response to this call will be generous. As a slight reward for their services, the boys assisting in the drive will be the guests of the Library Board at the Rex Theatre on Saturday afternoon.

COAL From Saunders Creek

Patronize Home Industry and buy your Saunders Coal Here

The Saunders Alberta Mine is mostly local capital, and the Directors are Red Deer men who are deserving of your patronage. We are strongly advising you to place your orders immediately for your requirements in the High-grade Coal, which is mined by modern machinery and is the best prepared coal we have ever received from this field. We have the exclusive agency for Red Deer and District for this Coal and also for the Alexco Coal from Saunders Creek.

SUNSHINE DRUMHELLER COAL

We have just received our first car, since the strike, of this most popular Stove Coal, which was so much in demand last season for both kitchen and steam boiler use, and to those who have not tried out this splendid coal, may we suggest that you try a half ton order on our absolute guarantee of satisfaction basis. We would also appreciate your order for your requirements in Drumheller Sunshine Lump Coal, which is the best from that field.

To our old Black Diamond Coal customers we would like to say we are again the exclusive agents for this coal for the coming season, and would appreciate an order for your requirements in this coal before the rush begins.

We are also agents for the Edmonton Pen Coal. Call in and let us explain this coal to you.

We have just received a car of Lump and a car of Nut from the District Mine. This coal is well known here as we have handled it for the past eight years, it needs no introduction. For a cheap coal it is absolutely the best on the market.

STEAM COALS

We are selling agents for the Hillcrest and Cadomin Steam Coals and can assure prompt service.
